KOOKYNIE GOLD TAILINGS PROJECT UPDATE

Nex Metals Exploration Ltd (“NEX” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce the following update on the Kookynie gold tailings project.

The Company’s newly appointed Chief Executive Officer¹, Mr Maki Petkovski along with his technical team has immediately set about reviewing the Kookynie Gold Tailings Project and existing package of tenements held by the Company in the Kookynie region of the North-Eastern Goldfields and provide the following update.

Technical Review Update:

- Regulatory consent: The Department of Energy, Mines, Industry Regulation & Safety (DEMIRS) had previously, in 2020, approved a ‘Pilot Production Run’ for 20,000 tons of tailings.² Application for permit of works to commence for the remaining project tonnage.
- Implementation Plan: An independent consultant engineer has been engaged to review the feasibility of the proposed Pilot Production Run and to review and deliver an implementation plan for the existing and remaining tonnage.
- Equipment Assessment: The Company is reviewing applicable equipment and contractors for the provision of equipment and services for production operations.

Mr. Petkovski, Chief Executive Officer of Nex Metals Exploration, commented:

“Delivering production at Kookynie is a priority, monetising the potential of this project will help support an expansion of the Company’s portfolio of assets. I remain committed to exploring all avenues in delivering production and cashflow to the Company.”

The above review is in combination with the team at Indian Ocean Capital Pty Ltd³ with respect to funding both the Kookynie Gold Tailings Project and exploration on existing tenements moving forward.
